Products Containing Gluten

Gold Medal Products Co. (“Gold Medal”) follows the guideline standards for the “Gluten” protein substance of ingredients established by the United States Food and Drug Agency (FDA) and Codex Alimentarius Commission – a joint program of the World Health Organization and Food and Agriculture Organization. The FDA and Codex Alimentarius Commission state that “Gluten” levels below 20 parts per million (ppm) are considered to be “Gluten Free”.

To the best of Gold Medal’s knowledge the following products manufactured, packaged, and/or distributed at the Cincinnati manufacturing facility exceed the 20 ppm of “Gluten” protein substance within their ingredients:
